much to apologize for the actions of many of the citizens of Mississippi - & various other parts of the South. The latter are not condoned by the majority of us who find their actions deplorable!

I hope you can find forgiveness within your heart - a big request - as I, with many others, truly admire you.
Sincerely, Barbara W. Fuchs

Dear Sir:

This letter has a two-fold purpose - firstly, I want to tell you how very much I admire your courage in the face of adversity - Your quiet courage is most commendable.

I would like very
